Siblings Camp

Last November, the 2008 Siblings camp was held at Victor Harbor and was full of fun, games and exciting activities. In spite of some coolish weather, Purple Soups Tim and Beck involved the kids in abseiling, surfboarding (a very popular event!), making a scary movie (mmm, Alfred Hitchcock's 'The Birds' comes to mind!) and lots of other fun activities. The kids ranged in age from 7 years through to 16 years. I'm sure they will all be back for next year's camp!

From Michael Barre, age 14

On the 15th and 16th of November 12 other kids and I went to Victor Harbor with Purple Soup's Beck and Tim. We did lots of things including 'colour combat' where we were in teams and did a range of activities. Whoever won the most games won the whole thing. We also went abseiling which was heaps fun and a bit scary. We made a horror movie about seagulls as well. We had good food and everyone was very friendly.

I want to thank Tim and Beck from Purple Soup, as it was heaps of fun. And to everyone else that I met, you're all cool. I look forward to next year. Thanks again. Keep up the good work guys.

From Angus, age 7

'It was fun!!!!!! They had good meals. I like abseiling, there was lots of action. The Fluff (Bluff) was awesome. The Fluff is dangerous. We made a horror movie where the seagulls attacked us.'

From Trish (worrywart mum!)

Angus' very anxious mum, would like to thank Purple Soup, CFSA and the Comfort Inn Colonial Motel at Victor. Angus had a wonderful time in a safe environment and would not stop talking about the camp, the whole 800km road trip home! He's still asking me if he can go to camp next year.

CFSA would like to thank Purple Soup for once again organising this fun siblings camp and the Australian Hotels Association which provided the funding for it this year. We would also like to thank Des and Sandy Manuel (grandparents to Harrison Leach) from Comfort Inn Colonial Victor Harbor who very kindly provided accommodation for everyone and to Sue and Mick Hennessy (parents) from Subway Victor Harbor who provided lunch on Sunday. All the kids had a great time and appreciate your kindness!
